THE DISTRICT TAX BILL

The Bill as it Passed the House and Senate. The District tax bill that passed the Senate last Tuesday was amended by the conference committee and passed by both Houses of Congress Saturday. There were few changes in the original bill. In some places provisions were taken from one head and placed under another, where they were more appropriate, but did not affect the sense of the bill.

The clause making the refusal to fill up the blank form prescribed with the necessary inform on concerning personal property at a penalty a fine not exceeding $50), with inverse of a fine not exceeding $50°, with imprisonmen not exceeding thirty Jayz, is struck out. The last section of the Senate bill exempte bankers, merchants and other trades, exceppankers, merchants and other trades, excepthose dealing in liquors, who pay reas and perfound taxes as prescribed by law, from paymany percentage upon the capital (excluding band deposits) invested in their business, required no der the provisions of any law or ordinance relating to the payment and collection of license taxes to the payment and collection of license taxes. This was stricken out, and in its place the following was inserted and passed with the bill.

Sec. 19. That the twenty-third section of the art of the Legislative Assembly of the District of Columbia, entitled "An act imposing a license on trades business and professions, practiced or carried on in the District of Columbia," approved August 25, 1871, clauses 20 and 35 of the twenty-first section of said act, and clause 10 of said twenty-first section of said act, as amended by the act amendatory thereof, approved June 20, 1872, and all other laws and acts, or parts thereof, inconsistent herewith, be, and the same are hereby, repealed. THE PERSONAL TAX. The provisions for the personal tax sale in the bill is as follows:

Sec. 7. That when the installment of one-half of the taxes on personal property so as aforesaid due and payable before the 1st day of December, 1876, shall not be paid before said date, or when the remaining installment shall not be paid before the 1st day of June, 1877, then, and in either such event, the collector of taxes may distrain sufficient goods and chattels found within the said District, and belonging to the person, persons, association, firm, or corporation charged with such it x, to pay the taxes remaining due under the provisions of this law from such porson, firm, association, or corporation, together with the penalty therein and the costs that may necrue. And for want of such goods and chattels, raid collector may levy upon and sell at auction, in like manner, the cetate and interest of such person, firm, association, or corporation in any parcel of land in said District, and in that case the proceedings as to such land subsequent to saile shall be the same as in the case of taxes against real estate, as in this act provided. And thereupon said collector shall imm distely proceed to advertise the same, by public notices posted in front of the court-house and is as follows: ec. 7. That when the installment of one-half sale shall be the same as in the case of taxes against real estate, as in this act provided. And thereupon said collector shall imm distely proceed to advertise the same, by public notices posted in front of the court-house and in the office of said collector, and by advertisement three times for one week in some daily newspaper published in said District, as hereinafter provided, stating the time when and the place where such property shall be sold, the last publication to be at least six days before the day of sale; and if the taxes and penalty thereon for which property shall have been districted, and the costs and e-pense which shall have accrued thereon, shall not be paid before the day fixed for such sale, which shall not be less than ten days after the taking of such property, the collectorshall proceed to sell, at public saudion, in front of the court-house, to the highest bidder, such property, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to pay said taxes, penalty and accrued costs and expenses of such distraint and sale. The collector of taxes shall be allowed, for making such distress and sale, the fees as are now by law allowed to the marshal of said District for making levy and sale of property under execution. Said collector shall report in detail every such distress and sale, in writing, to the Commissioners of the District, or their successors in office; and his accounting officers of the said by him to the accounting officers of the treasury of the District, and, upon being of simed by the owner or owners of the goods and chartels, shall be paid to him.

THE SIGNAL CORPS. A Chronicle Man Catches a Tartar. Mn. Editon: An understrapper of the Daily Chronicle, in an article appearing among the ditorials in Sunday's issue of that paper, and headed "Offensive Visitors," proclaims that he has refused insertion to an article written by "Private or Corporal Cashell," which, as he naively admits, "answered fourteen scriatem small allegations against the signal corps." (I have not corrected his spelling nor his colloca-have not corrected his spelling nor his collocation.)

It is the first duty of a newspaper to tell its readers the truth, or to lay the whole matter before them in order that they may judge for themselves; yet this exemplary journalist (7) confesses publicly that he has suppressed the answers to certain calumnies.

The tone, temper and grammar of his productions would indicate how much of a gentleman he is, if his want of veneration for the truth, repudiation of his proportion of the just debts contracted in connection with a certain defunct periodical, and his lack of personal cleanliness did not do so for him. Both of the visitors, whom he chooses to term "offensive," have, therefore, good grounds for denying his competency as a judge of gentlemanly conduct.

The fact is that for sky or sight, months, he has, chooses to term "offensive," have, therefore, good grounds for denying his competency as a judge of gentlemanly conduct.

The fact is that for six or eight months he has been siandering the Signal Bureau and all connected with it, and when quietly assured, on the evening to which he refers, that all his various slanders could be as thoroughly refuted as his later ones are in the accompanying letter, he lost his temper and set an example of "raising his voice." As anybody naturally would, I raised mine also, but his notion that he could have me arrested for so doing is extremely absurd. It is susceptible of proof that my manner was perfectly civil, even when I raised my voice, and that I would have left his office without raising it at all if he had not detained me by continuing to address me. My civility in hearing him out, and replying to him, was quite thrown away.

He has no just grounds for finding fault with the style of the letter he rejected; anything in it that can be censured results from following his example and imitating his style—a policy which I adopted in order to bring the enormity of his conduct home to him. In that I succeeded to perfection, and now he compels me, in self-defence, to give all the facts to the public.

In reply to his repeated references to the Army Regulations, I need only say, for his information, that there is no law or regulation in existence, either human or divine, prohibiting me from telling the truth. See accompanying letter.

Very respectfully, Joseph Cashell..

The following is the letter which the Chronicle rejected:

rejected: The Editor Chronicle:

An article on the Signal corps (vilifying it, as usual) appeared in your journal this morning. It was not signed; therefore, according to well-known rules and your own declaration, "the paper is responsible" for it. In review ing it I shall accordingly suppose you, Mr. Editor, (whoever you may chance to be,) to be the author of it. I have to premise that a more outspoken exhibition of ignorance and malice has seldom fallen under my observation.

"THE SIGNAL CORPS.

"If the signal service belongs to the army, why is not a signal officer sent out with the Indian expedition under General Crook?"

This question indicates ignorance of the signal service and ignorance of the army. There are no resignal officers at all. There are no less than 300 or 400 acting signal officers, including those on duty with the Signal Corps, scattered through the army—not less than one to each military post—and Gen. Crook could not take the field with so large a force without taking with him at least half a dozen such officers. I trust this half a dozen such officers. I trust this half a dozen such officers. I trust this half a dozen will satisfy the Chronicle, and that it will not insist on demanding that the number be increased without at least consulting Gen. Crook.

"A better field for the application of the science of semiology (!!) could not be found."

This doze not deserve a remark, beyond saying that you are as unfortunate in selecting primitives, from which to construct your new derivative words, as you are to all other matters of knowledge and of common sense.

"Why are not the seacoast telegraph lines built." "THE SIGNAL CORPS.

"Why are not the seacoast telegraph lines built by the signal service transferred to the life-saving bureau of the Treasury Department, where they properly belong?"

It is foolish and reckless to assert that these lines "properly belong" to the Treasury Department. They are not transferred to it:

First, because they were built cheaply by the signal service; and second, because the signal service can maintain them as cheaply as it built them; and third, because no other department of the Government could do either of those things so cheaply; $5.50 per mile per annum cannot be beaten at all.

"At present they are maintained at a great expense to the country, and do not serve any useful purpose."

This sentence includes two deliberate falsehoods. It is strange that nobody has discovered all these things but the wiseacre of the Chronicle office. Effrontery may pass for courage, but it has never been mistaken for wisdom.

"Why are not the military telegraph lines in Texas and Arizons transferred to the Quarter-master's Department if they must be kept under military control."

military control?"
Yes; or why is not the artillery transferred to the Post Office Department, or the cavalry to the Interior Department? Questions like these could be multiplied of infinitum by any idiot having sufficient time. This question is based on the "jact" stated in the following sentence. Let us examine the "fact:"
"That Department now is at the burden and expense of caring for and working them, while the chief signal officer has managed to get supervising control of them and perverts them to his personal advantage."

Here we find that the "fact" is a deliberate.

Here we find that the "fact" is a deliberate

falsehood, as it is well known that the Quarter-master's Hepartment has not, and never has had, anything to do with the management of these lines. The Chief Signai Officer was ordered to construct them, and in that way having obtained the supervision, it was not necessary to intrigue for it, after the Quartermaster had constructed them. It is very unfortunate that such unblush-ing and unprincipled falsehoods cannot be more ing and unprincipled falsehoods caused in and unprincipled falsehoods caused casily seen through by the general public. That a respectable newspaper would publish them cannot be admitted.

"" if what use to the country are the so-called farmers' builetins, issued by the signal officer daily, at a cost of nearly one hundred thousand dollars per anhum?" dollars per anhum?"

I retort: Of what use is the Washington Caronicle to the general public, who never see it? Or, more appropriately, of what use is it to its four of its hundred guiled and be-fooled readers here in Washington? "One hundred thousand dollars" is a falsehood.

washington? "One hundred thousand dollars" is a failschood.

"It looks as if the issue was made to familiarize the public with the fact that this Chief Signal Officer is a 'Briver-ass-igned.' While the public will be undoubtedly willing to give him the full grade, by what authority or show of justice does this signal officer lease telegraph lines at an annual rental of more than one third their cost, simply to connect his office with the summer capital, ac.7 Also, by what authority a divilian is employed at an exorbitant satary to furnish brains for a military establishment?"

This betrays the enimus of the whole fabrication. It is personal malice—personal hatred of one of the most amiable gentlemen in this city; because he kicked from his corps rascals whose behavior would disgrace, and does disgrace, certain notorious purions of this city. Their respective private historics, extending back many years, are being prepared for extensive circuiation by the writer of this.

ine writer of this,

"No branch of the public service has exposed liself to attack so openly as this signal service has done," by expelling the secondrels from its berom and vomiting them into the Chronicle office—a fitting hell for such approprious angels.
(The office gains this with its responsibility for them). (The office gains this with its responsibility for them.)
"By the extravagance with which its money has been lavished on unworthy objects, and the evident purpose of running it for the sole exalta-tion of a single individual."

And thus it closes, as it opened, with a mixture of ignorance, and malice, and deliberate, un-blushing falsehood by the ass-hind of the Chronicle.

He can now sit back contemplating his work, and murmur after Horace—and nurmur after Horace—

"Exegi monumentum are perennius, Regalique situ pyramidum altius."

This he can construe as involving two puns situated in the words "are perennius" and "altius" respectively, whereof the second meaning in the former will refer to the material of his "cheek," and in the latter to the depth of his moral degradation. dation.

In conclusion, I desire to state that it was neither the literary ability of the writer nor his respect for truth, as botrayed in his production, (nor his private character, which is known to me,) that procured for him this review. In no respect whatsoever do I consider him worthy of respect ful consideration or remark.

Now, to give you satisfactory proof that Green's August Flower will cure you of 'dyspepsia and liver complaint, with all its effects, such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, palpitation of the heart, heartburn, water brash, coming up of food after cating, low spirits, &c., we ask you to go to any druggist in Washington and get a sample bottle of Green's August Flower for lu cents and try it, or a regular size, for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Chas.

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

No people in the world suffer so much with Dyspepsia as Americans. Although years of experience in medicine had failed to accomplish a certain and sure remedy for this disease and its effects, such as Sour Stomach, Heart-burn, Water-brash, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Liver Complaint, coming up of the food, low spirits, general debility, &c., yet since the introduction of Green's August Flowers we believe there is no case of dyspepsia that cannot be immediately relieved. Thirty thousand dozen sold last year, without one case of failure reported. Go to any druggist in Washington and get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve you. Regular size, 75 cents. Chas. Stott & Co., wholesale agents.

Judgment of the Public!

During the past five years the public have carefully observed the wonderful cures accomplished from the use of Vegetine. From its use many an afflicted sufferer has been restored to perfect health, after having expended a small fortune in procuring needeal advice and obtaining poisonous mineral medical advice and obtaining poisonous mineral medicines. It is now justly remarked by all classes of people that Vegetine holds a higher position in the estimation of the public than any other medical compound, and it has won its prat reputation and immense demand from actual merit.

Its medical properties are Alterative, Tonic, Solvent and Diurctic. There is no disease of the human system for which the Vegetine cannot be used with perfect safety, as it does not contain any metallic or poisonous compound. It is composed exclusively of barks, roots and herbs; it is very pleasant to take; every child likes it. It is safe and reliable, as the following evidence will show:

MARSHALL HALL FOR SALE. This well-known and popular Summer Resort, on the Maryland side of the Potomac river, sixteen miles below Washington, D. C., and opposite Mount Vernon, is now offered for sale on easy terms, or will trade for either the sale of early and the sale of early and the sale of early all in bear age an orchard of over 100 choice varieties of applies; a well-huilt old-fashioned mansion, with 2 rooms and spacious halis, a large barn and were an outsuitings, all in rood order, and sitted ap in every way for a No. 1 farm. and order, and steel up in every way for a No. 1 farm.

The river front is fitted up especially for excursionists, and is, without exception, the best location for this purpose on the Potomac river. There is an extensive lawn reaching down to the water's edge, numerous shade trees, srbors, booths, patent swings, &c., and a parillion the largest south of Philadelphia. There is excellent fishing, bathing, and boating at the place, and it is thought that a first-class Summer Boarding-house would pay well, as there is nothing of the kind within seventy-five miles.

A public road leads down to the wharf in front of the premises, and is the principal, if not the only, outlet toward the river for fruits and produce from farmers in Charles county. The site is a good one for a store, and there is a building on the place admirably adapted for such a purpose.

The steamers Mary Washington and Arrow, from Washington, touch at the wharf on their daily trips downward and upward. The Lady of the Lake, the Jane Mosely, the Thompson, and the two Baltimore boats (the Washington and the Express) stop at regular intervals, and daily excursions are run to the place. the place.

REAT REDUCTION OF BOARD AT THE CYCLEBRATED ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS.—Uwing to the depressed condition of the country the proprietor has determined to lower his charges, that all may be able to derive the benefits from the use of these justify celebrated waters. They need no recommendation to Washingtonians, since they have so fully established their efficiency through the thousands who have been brought from death's door to renewed health by the use of their wonderful medicinal waters. Since tax summer the Chalybeate Springs, which was opened last year, has been thoroughly analyzed by Prof. M. B. Harden, of the V. M. I., of Virginia, and by comparison shows it to be fully as strong as "Rawley" of carbonate of fron, having a small quantity mere than one and a small quantity less than the other two springs. So in addition to the water that has made these springs famous, the proprietor takes pleasured to drink either separately or in connection with the more celebrated waters of these springs a pure carbonate of iron (chalybeate) water, inferior to none, and equaled only by Hawley, in the State. This at the very cheep rates, with accommodation fully up to any previous year.

First month of four weeks, $0; two months, eight weeks, $00.
